For Manufacturers

Welcome to the gateway of innovation and excellence in the world of nuts, seeds, and snacks processing. As experts in the food processing industry, we understand the significance of quality, taste, and nutrition.

Our factory serves manufacturers seeking to raise the bar of their products. Whether you're aiming to perfect the crunch of your almonds, or explore state-of-the-art flavour combinations in your snack offerings, you've come to the right place.

For Private Labels

At Grau, we honour tradition while embracing a spirit of exploration. Specialising in crafting private-label nuts and seeds, we combine time-tested methods with a willingness to innovate and adapt to evolving tastes and trends.

With our decades-long experience in the food processing industry, we possess the flexibility and creativity to develop customised product lines in any format or packaging, tailored to our clients' needs. Whether you're seeking to uphold traditional flavours or embark on a journey of culinary discovery, we're here to support you every step of the way.

For Wholesalers

At Grau, we pride ourselves on our track-record, which has offered wholesalers, distributors, and supermarkets across Europe access to a wide range of products for over 40 years. Whether you're catering to individual consumers, small retailers, or large family size formats, our diverse selection includes items tailored to all market profiles.

What sets us apart is our unwavering commitment to quality. Every product bearing the Grau brand comes with a quality guarantee.

Packaging & Logistics

Grau offers various packing solutions and logistics delivery formats for nuts sold in bulk and ready-to-sell products. We can quickly adapt to your market's specific needs. If you can't find the format you need, get in touch with us, and we'll customise a solution for you.
